

Alderman--Cook

Rev. Teddy Alderman, of Jackson, Mississippi, was married to Mrs. Minnie Cook, of Elkton, Maryland, on Sunday, November 23, 1975, in a noontime ceremony in the Alderman home in Jackson.

Officiating was Rev. Arlo J. Alderman, son of the groom and pastor of the Pleasant Green Church of the Nazarene at Deer Lodge, Tennessee. The ceremony, written by the officiating minister, included various Scriptures concerning marriage and the husband-wife relationship.

Following the ceremony, a full-course turkey dinner, along with the traditional wedding cake and punch, was served. Guests included men

diate fa
friends

The
groom
year
residin
1827

Jacks
in Jan

Rev

known
ty an
area,

preser
Pearl

first w
the L

ago.
husba

also earlier

man
genuin

wonde
God

ed members of the immediate family and a few local friends.

The seventy-one year old groom and his sixty-one year old bride will be residing for a few weeks at 1827 Westover Street in Jackson, probably moving in January to Elkton.

Rev. Alderman is well known in Pocahontas County and the surrounding area, with many relatives presently living here. Mrs. Pearl (Dean) Alderman, his first wife, went to be with the Lord about ten years ago. The bride's first husband, Pink Cook, had also died in the faith earlier. Rev. Arlo Alderman reports, "It was a genuine thrill to marry this wonderful couple whom God sent to each other."